

What the owners love:

About this house:

Aside from the aesthetics and function of this home. We really love the following:

1.) The charm. This 100 year old bungalow oozes charm. Although it has been renovated it still has many of its original features such as, the beautiful hardwood floors, built-in's, and leaded glass windows.

2.) The yard. Although it may be hard to tell in the winter. This yard is fabulous! I mean really fabulous. When the trees are full of leaves a canopy is created in the front providing lots of shade. The fire pit in the back yard makes for fun bonfires. For dogs, we have added a gated & fenced in dog run which keeps their waste contained to one area for easy clean up. The area would also be great for a garden to keep the bunnies out! New sod was laid in 2014 along with a brand new sprinkler system.

3.) The friendly next door neighbors. Having good neighbors is really important, especially the ones who live right next door. Our next door neighbors are truly the best. Friendly and very welcoming. We keep an eye on each others homes while out of town. Enjoy glasses on wine together, and even help with yard work. They are very quiet. The perfect neighbors for anyone.

4.) The space. This house has an abundance of space and storage. Perfect for any type or size of family.
